

The Croydon Buddhist Centre child protection code of conduct 2022 - 2023

As a Friend, Mitra or Order member and as an employee, volunteer, leader, teacher or parent involved with children aged under 18 visiting, or taking part in activities at, Croydon Buddhist Centre

I will do my best to

- treat all children and young people with respect and kindness.
- be an example of the good conduct I wish to see in young people and others.
- respect a young person's right to personal privacy.
- encourage young people and adults to feel comfortable and caring enough to point out attitudes or behaviour they do not like.
- remember that someone else might misinterpret my actions, no matter how well-intentioned.
- be aware that physical contact with a child or young person may be misinterpreted.
- co-operate within the Croydon Buddhist Centre Child protection policy.
- give guidance and support to less experienced helpers, colleagues and volunteers.
- challenge unacceptable behaviour and report all
- allegations/suspensions of abuse to the Croydon Buddhist Centre's Safeguarding officer, Prajnanandi.
- ensure that, whenever possible, there is more than one adult present during activities with children or at least that we are within sight or hearing of others. This does not apply to a parent alone in a room only with their own child/children.

This is for my own protection as well as for the protection of children and young people in our care.

I will not

- allow someone who is likely to pose a risk to children to have contact with children (ie someone known to have a conviction for sexual or violent offences, or someone who has disclosed a sexual interest in children).
- attempt to contact anyone 15-17 by phone, text, email or social media, without checking with our Safeguarding officer as to what terms have been agreed with the child's parent/guardian.
- have inappropriate physical or verbal contact with children or young people.
- allow myself to be left alone in a room out of sight or hearing of others with a person under 18 who is not my own child.
- make suggestive or derogatory remarks or gestures in front of children or young people.
- exaggerate or trivialize child-abuse issues.
- rely on my good name or that of the Croydon Buddhist Centre to protect me.
- assume "Things like that could never happen here" or "They would never do a thing like that."

I have read the guidance above, and the accompanying Croydon Buddhist Centre Child protection policy, and agree to abide by them.
